

Aurora Lubiz

Teacher, dancer and choreographer. She made her first dance studies at the Escuela Nacional de Danzas. She was part of the Ballet Folklórico de Santiago Ayala "El Chucaro" y Norma Viola for many years.

She studied tango with Antonio Todaro, Pepito Avellaneda, Los Dinzel and La Negra Margarita. She teaches tango from 1983.

She had been through other dances as jazz and flamenco and also theatre.

She took part of important shows as Tango Emoción, Romance de Barrio, Los Grandes del Tango Argentino, and Una rosa para el Señor Tango.

She made very successful tours around USA, Japan, Canada, Germany, Australia, Netherlands, Chile, Brazil and Uruguay.

She was the artistic director of the World Tango Festival, organized in Buenos Aires.

Nowadays she teaches technique lessons for the follower role at the Escuela Argentina de Tango and at her own dance studio, where she has also her exclusive production, exhibition and shop of tango dancing shoes.

With Hugo Daniel, her dance partner from more than three years, she teaches tango lessons, milonga and vals and both are part of La Compañía del Maestro Mariano Mores with whom they make tours into the country and around the world.